

Commas After Fronted Adverbials

Look at the sentences below. Add the missing comma after the fronted adverbial.

- 1 After a while the mermaid realised her Prince was not returning and gave up.
- 2 Before long the Princess had formulated a plan to escape from her towery prison.
- 3 As the sun was setting all the fairies buzzed and fluttered around the palace, preparing for the ball.
- 4 Twice a year a group of young men from the village would venture into the forest in search of the great fabled beast.
- 5 Above the clouds the magical palace floated.
- 6 Between the sea and the sky there is a legendary place where all the magic in the world can be found.
- 7 Behind the waterfall a beautiful cave was hidden.
- 8 In the distance there were unicorns furiously galloping towards the beach.
- 9 As quick as a flash the wizard tapped his hat with his wand and disappeared.
- 10 Positively trembling with excitement the little girl reached out her hand and gripped the door handle.

Extension

Complete these sentences by adding your own fronted adverbial. Remember to use a comma!

1. _____ Martha saw a beautiful rainbow.
2. _____ it is important to do your research.

Look at the sentences below. Add the missing comma after the fronted adverbial.

- 1 Totally overwhelmed the children decided to take a well-deserved rest after their long journey.
- 2 Almost unbelievably the water began to part and she was able to walk along the sand with the sea rising up around her.
- 3 Without a sound the tiny forest creatures crept and scuttled across the leaf-covered floor.
- 4 Mysteriously the wind began to rustle and if you listened carefully it seemed to be speaking.
- 5 Far, far away there is a land where all the things you dreamed of really exist.
- 6 Under the ground there is a whole world of fascinating creatures that you may never have imagined exist.
- 7 Below the waves on the very bottom of the sea floor you can find fascinating bubbles within which are miniature worlds of microscopic creatures.
- 8 Never without fear they stepped further and further into the cave they believed to be the dragon's lair.
- 9 In the blink of an eye the majestic beast spread its enormous wings and rose into the ominous sky.
- 10 All of a sudden there was a sound that no one had ever heard before.

Extension

Complete these sentences by adding your own fronted adverbial. Remember to use a comma!

1. _____ unicorns can in fact be dangerous.
2. _____ she leapt into action.

Look at the sentences below. Add the missing comma after the fronted adverbial.

1

In years gone by there had always been stories of large ferocious beasts that roamed the ancient forests at night.

2

Between the sky and the sea there is a portal which can only be accessed by the most powerful of wizards.

3

In the distance there was a torrent of swirling purple clouds which seemed to be coming towards us.

4

As fast as he could the Prince hurdled the palace wall and bounded towards his fastest horse.

5

Back at the castle the Queen descended into despair, it had been hours since the last search party had departed and still no news.

6

Once or twice a year a small group of willing volunteers would venture into the cave to make offerings to the Mother of Dragons.

7

Somewhere near here there is a secret cave within which many unexpected and magical treasures can be found.

8

Somewhat flustered the Princess tightly grasped the reins of her horse and galloped towards the closing gate.

9

Under the ground there were tunnels that many people believed had been closed up centuries ago.

10

Almost unbelievably the waves subsided and instead of legs, the woman had a beautiful emerald green tail.

Extension

Complete these sentences by adding your own fronted adverbial. Remember to use a comma!

1. _____ the Prince soared through the sky.

2. _____ there were huge crowds waiting.

Look at the sentences below. Add the missing comma after the fronted adverbial.

- 1 As quick as a flash the Princess leapt off her horse and pulled the Prince from danger.
- 2 Happily she turned and walked back into the palace, smiling.
- 3 Under the ground many wonderful and magical things had been buried years ago.
- 4 Quite understandably the merpeople did not take kindly to being described as fish.
- 5 Somewhere near here there is a door in the mountainside which serves as the only entrance into a world you would not believe exists.
- 6 Occasionally people come across things by chance but often an unexpected event to something wonderful.
- 7 Curiously the door began to open by itself.
- 8 Under the light of the stars the fairies began planning how they would rescue their Queen.
- 9 In years gone by everyone believed in magic.
- 10 Without warning the sky seemed to split in two, a huge crack opened and the storm became ferocious and frightening.

Extension

Complete these sentences by adding your own fronted adverbial. Remember to use a comma!

1. _____ dragons are gentle creatures.
2. _____ the palace was built.

Commas After Fronted Adverbials Answers

1. After a while, the mermaid realised her Prince was not returning and gave up.
2. Before long, the Princess had formulated a plan to escape from her towery prison.
3. As the sun was setting, all the fairies buzzed and fluttered around the palace, preparing for the ball.
4. Twice a year, a group of young men from the village would venture into the forest in search of the great fabled beast.
5. Above the clouds, the magical palace floated.
6. Between the sea and the sky, there is a legendary place where all the magic in the world can be found.
7. Behind the waterfall, a beautiful cave was hidden.
8. In the distance, there were unicorns furiously galloping towards the beach.
9. As quick as a flash, the wizard tapped his hat with his wand and disappeared.
10. Positively trembling with excitement, the little girl reached out her hand and gripped the door handle.

Extension: Accept any reasonable fronted adverbial followed by a comma.

Commas After Fronted Adverbials Answers

1. Totally overwhelmed, the children decided to take a well-deserved rest after their long journey.
2. Almost unbelievably, the water began to part and she was able to walk along the sand with the sea rising up around her.
3. Without a sound, the tiny forest creatures crept and scuttled across the leaf-covered floor.
4. Mysteriously, the wind began to rustle and if you listened carefully it seemed to be speaking.
5. Far, far away, there is a land where all the things you dreamed of really exist.
6. Under the ground, there is a whole world of fascinating creatures that you may never have imagined exist.
7. Below the waves, on the very bottom of the sea floor you can find fascinating bubbles within which are miniature worlds of microscopic creatures.
8. Never without fear, they stepped further and further into the cave they believed to be the dragon's lair.
9. In the blink of an eye, the majestic beast spread its enormous wings and rose into the ominous sky.
10. All of a sudden, there was a sound that no one had ever heard before.

Extension: Accept any reasonable fronted adverbial followed by a comma.

Commas After Fronted Adverbials Answers

1. In years gone by, there had always been stories of large ferocious beasts that roamed the ancient forests at night.
2. Between the sky and the sea, there is a portal which can only be accessed by the most powerful of wizards.
3. In the distance, there was a torrent of swirling purple clouds which seems to be coming towards us.
4. As fast as he could, the Prince hurdled the palace wall and bounded towards his fastest horse.
5. Back at the castle, the Queen descended into despair, it had been hours since the last search party had departed and still no news.
6. Once or twice a year, a small group of willing volunteers would venture into the cave to make offerings to the Mother of Dragons.
7. Somewhere near here, there is a secret cave within which many unexpected and magical treasures can be found.
8. Somewhat flustered, the Princess tightly grasped the reins of her horse and galloped towards the closing gate.
9. Under the ground, there were tunnels that many people believed had been closed up centuries ago.
10. Almost unbelievably, the waves subsided and instead of legs, the woman had a beautiful emerald green tail.

Extension: Accept any reasonable fronted adverbial followed by a comma.

Commas After Fronted Adverbials Answers

1. As quick as a flash, the Princess leapt off her horse and pulled the Prince from danger.
2. Happily, she turned and walked back into the palace, smiling.
3. Under the ground, many wonderful and magical things had been buried years ago.
4. Quite understandably, the merpeople did not take kindly to being described as fish.
5. Somewhere near here, there is a door in the mountainside which serves as the only entrance into a world you would not believe exists.
6. Occasionally, people come across things by chance but often an unexpected event to something wonderful.
7. Curiously, the door began to open by itself.
8. Under the light of the stars, the fairies began planning how they would rescue their Queen.
9. In years gone by, everyone believed in magic.
10. Without warning, the sky seemed to split in two, a huge crack opened and the storm became ferocious and frightening.

Extension: Accept any reasonable fronted adverbial followed by a comma.